Habliston, a well-known merchant of this city, died yesterday morning about 7 o'clock after a painful illness of malignant disease of the stomach. Mr. Habliston was born in Baltimore in 1820, and removed to this city in 1840, where he has lived ever since. It is a matter of congratulation to the stone-cutters and to our people generally that this work is soon to be resumed-to the former especially, many of them having been under heavy expense for months past without any source of income.

THE PRIMARY ELECTION PLAN. | Excursions and Pic-Nics. - Excursions and pic-nics have been somewhat at a discount during the past few days, owing in a measure, no doubt, to the cool and pleasant weather; and the travel to the mountains, although still increasing, is not as heavy as might have been anticipated at this season. But a day in the country during such wea ther as we have very recently had is worth

24, 1874, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted: The Constitution and By-Laws of this club strictly forbid members to promise the aid or support of the Association to any one in primary or nominating conventions; but when candidates are once nominated by the ship. properly constituted delegates of the Conservative party, each and every member pledges his individual and untiring aid in support of the nominees. The Club supports the idea that primary elections include the fairest means of orriving at the true sense of the people as to their choice for Conservative candidates, and that the manner of adopting and conducting the plan therefor properly belongs to the City Central Conservative Committee. We have quietly and anxiously watched with interest the action of the City Central Conservative Committee without comment. They have adopted a plan which it is not for ter Baptist church reported a membership us to discuss, but as true and good workers of two hundred and seventy-five, with eight in the Conservative cause to support. We have been taught by those older in the polities of our State and city that allegiance to party without regard to our personal prejudice or preference is the first element of our duty as true Virginians. The representatives of our party in the City Central Committee are our leaders. They have issued their dictum, and we therefore propose the following:

Resolved, That the Kemper Kampaign Klub heartily endorse the action of the City Central Committee in the adoption of the plan for "primary elections," believing it the best method that could be adopted to secure a true expression of the choice of the Conservative voters of the city of Richmond as to any Conservative candidate seeking their suffrages.
